Mission Statement

The City of Morro Bay is dedicated to the preservation and enhancement of the quality of life. The City shall be committed to this purpose and will provide a level of municipal service and safety consistent with and responsive to the needs of the public.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome and thank you for your interest in serving on one of the City's Advisory Boards. By serving on one of Morro Bay's Advisory Boards, you can help plan and guide the City's future. It is important that members of the Advisory Boards understand the functions and responsibilities of a board member. We hope that you find serving on the City's advisory board personally satisfying, and in the process gain invaluable knowledge and experience.

The City of Morro Bay Municipal Code empowers the City Council to form boards and commissions to assist the City Council in legislating and managing the affairs of the City. From time to time citizen advisory committees are appointed to meet a specific topic and need. Their varied roles provide significant opportunities for formulating City policy and for creating public forums for meaningful community participation.

Consistent with the City's Mission Statement, advisory boards can help the City achieve its mission and purpose, which is to preserve and enhance the citizens of Morro Bay's quality of life. This Handbook shall serve as a guide to assist you in the sometimes-complex, but often rewarding, process of serving on one of the City's Advisory Boards. These advisory bodies assist the City Council in making better-informed decisions by formulating new ideas, information gathering, receiving public testimony and comments, analyzing complex issues, and making recommendations on specific projects and broad policy.

Advisory Boards advise the City Council and the City Manager on matters within their area of responsibility and interest; help focus attention on specific issues and problems within their scope of responsibilities, and recommend action and alternatives for Council consideration; act as channels of communication among City government, the general public, and interest groups; and balance community wants with municipal responsibility and resources.

At times, your role may be challenging and complex. Public opinion can be sharply divided, questions may overlap, and sometimes the province of one body may also be the territory of another. Therefore, we have created this handbook to assist you with some of the fundamental aspects of your new responsibility.

Much of the information in this handbook comes from City policy, such as the City's Municipal Code and the City Council Policies and Procedures Manual. In addition, State Law governs certain responsibilities of advisory body members. The material presented is intended to: (1) Give interested persons an understanding of why the City's advisory bodies have been established and how they function within the overall governmental framework and, (2) Summarize the roles, relationships and responsibilities of each advisory body member.

Each Advisory Board within the City has its own By-Laws. The By-Laws are included herein for your ease of reference. The sections of the Handbook are divided as follows:

1. General Information on Advisory Boards
2. FAQs
3. Background Information of City Government
4. The Brown Act
5. Political Reform Act of 1974 (Conflict of Interest)
6. Advisory Body Summary
7. Advisory Board By-Laws

We hope this handbook will answer many of your questions, get you off to a good start, and contribute to your satisfaction in serving the citizens of the City of Morro Bay.

1. General Information on Advisory Bodies

Advisory bodies are authorized by both the Morro Bay Municipal Code and the City Council.

Advisory boards provide an opportunity for interested residents to participate in the governing of their community under guidelines and procedures established by the Council. Advisory bodies can improve the quality of City government by providing the Council with resources to make better-informed decisions. Because of the nature of various advisory bodies, they can serve as the “eyes and ears” of the Council for issues and matters that otherwise might not receive attention. Other benefits of advisory boards include improvement in the lines of communication between the public and the Council, greater opportunities for discussion of public issues, and more citizen involvement in City government. There is considerable variety in the purpose or responsibility of these bodies. Advisory Boards have been created by the City Council to serve the City of Morro Bay’s unique needs.

The authority of an advisory body will depend upon its specific purpose. Each has a specific focus and will make recommendations to the Council on issues related to that specific field. Decisions made by an advisory body may be appealed to the Council. The Council may not always accept the recommendation of an advisory body because of additional information available or a need to balance the recommendation with policy or community priorities.

Generally, advisory bodies are empowered only to make recommendations to the Council or to the City staff, unless specifically authorized by law or Council to do otherwise. There should be two-way communication so that commissions are aware of the long-term goals Council has adopted, and the advisory body is able to present new ideas to the Council. Advisory Board members are encouraged to attend and/or watch Council meetings.

Members of the advisory boards are volunteers who are appointed by the City Council and serve at the pleasure of the City Council. There is no compensation or benefits for board members, except for Planning Commission, whose responsibilities are greater and meetings more frequent. All members are expected to attend scheduled advisory board meetings and all meetings shall be conducted in accordance with Robert’s Rules of Order, City Council Policies and Procedures Manual and State Law.

Currently, the City of Morro Bay has seven Advisory Boards:

- Harbor Advisory Board
- Public Works Advisory Board
- Recreation and Parks Commission
- Planning Commission
- Tourism Business Improvement District
- Citizens Oversight Committee

2. Frequently Asked Questions

A. HOW ARE BOARD OR COMMISSION MEMBERS CHOSEN?

◆ APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCESS

- All recruitment for Board and Commission members is open and published in a local newspaper. The City accepts applications from interested persons throughout the year.
- Applicants will be sought from all segments of the community, representing various interests and groups.
- Appointment is made by the City Council. Each application is carefully reviewed by the City Council.
- Members serve at the pleasure of the City Council.
- Incumbents are considered for reappointment at the conclusion of their terms.
- Terms are four years, commencing on February 1st, and the terms are staggered.

◆ HOW DO I GET AN APPLICATION?

- Applications may be obtained from the City Clerk's office at City Hall. Information on vacancies and/or specific recruitment periods may be requested by phoning the City Clerk. An official application form must be completed for each position.

◆ ARE THERE ANY TIPS TO IMPROVE MY CHANCES OF BEING APPOINTED?

- Fill out a separate form for each board or commission in which you are interested. It is to your advantage to tailor each application to the specific board or commission for which you are applying. Emphasize different aspects of your background to match those needed for a particular board or commission.
- Emphasize your talents. Clearly indicate how your particular talents, skills, training, or experience will benefit the board or commission for which you wish to be considered.
- Become familiar with the appropriate board or commission. Attend meetings, talk with board or commission members, or read documents they have developed to acquaint yourself with their work. Talk with the department head responsible for staffing the specific board or commission in which you are interested.

B. QUALIFICATIONS FOR SERVICE

Board and Commission members may be required to wear "different hats" at different times. The ability to suitably perform the varied roles requires specialized skills and knowledge. Qualification for service can be divided into four general areas:

◆ LONG-RANGE INTEREST IN THE COMMUNITY

The ability to conceive and be concerned with the impact of current decisions on future citizens is paramount. Board and commission members are required to analyze issues, to listen to public comment through formal hearings or informal discussion, to interpret and apply mandates of the General Plan, and to analyze all the pertinent data before arriving at objective decisions which will be in the best interest of the community as a whole.

◆ FAIRNESS, COMMON SENSE, HONESTY AND GOOD CHARACTER

Keeping the public interest in mind, a board member will be called upon to use everyday good sense in balancing the need of public and private groups. Controversial issues do arise, and the ability to make decisions based on merit rather than personalities is a must. Other traits include imagination, flexibility and the ability to act in a judicial vs. legislative capacity.

◆ KNOWLEDGE OF THE COMMUNITY MARKETPLACE, PROCESS, OBJECTIVES, AND LAWS

A first-hand knowledge of economic systems, the general operation of government, and a basic understanding of the legal process is important. This knowledge will be of tremendous value when board members are required to conduct public hearings, analyze and receive testimony and make meaningful decisions.

◆ TIME TO SERVE IN APPOINTED CAPACITY

The amount of time that a board or commission member devotes to his/her duties varies with each board or commission. Before making a personal commitment, a prospective applicant should honestly evaluate whether he/she has adequate free time to attend the meetings, to review and be familiar with meeting materials, and to communicate with the public as well as with department staff.

C. STATEMENTS OF ECONOMIC INTERESTS / CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Members of any board or commission are required to file Statements of Economic Interest. Additionally, Board and Commission members are required to refrain from participation in matters where they have the potential for conflict of interest. (See Section 5 for the City's policy on Conflict of Interest)

3. Background Information on City Government

The City of Morro Bay is a general law city and became incorporated in 1964 and operates under the laws of the State of California.

The City Council, City Manager, City Clerk and City Attorney are integral to the day-to-day operations of the City. As such, we have included a summary of the City government's main function for your information and reference.

a. City Council:

The City Council is elected by a majority vote by the citizens of Morro Bay. The City Council is the governing body of the City and is made up of the Mayor and four council members. The City Council is accountable to the citizens of Morro Bay. The decisions of the City Council are reached by a majority vote.

The City Council formulates policy, approves programs, appropriates funds and establishes local taxes and assessments. The City Council enacts local laws (ordinances) and regulations for governing of the City. The local ordinances adopted by the City Council are compiled in the City's Municipal Code.

b. City Manager:

The City Manager is the administrative head of the government of the City. The City Manager is appointed by the City Council, and serves at its pleasure. The City Manager's duties include implementation of policies and procedures initiated by the City Council. The City Manager also is responsible for all City personnel, except as to the City Attorney, and serves as a liaison to each board, unless otherwise noted in the Board By-Laws.

c. City Clerk:

The City Clerk's duties include, but are not limited to: recording, writing and maintaining Council proceedings, conducting municipal elections, publishing ordinances and resolutions and other official City documents, storing and indexing official documents and City records for retrieval, administering Conflict of Interest disclosures, and serving as the custodian of the seal of the City.

d. City Attorney:

The City Attorney is appointed by the City Council. The City Attorney advises the City Council and City Officers (in their official capacity) in legal matters, attends all Council meetings and some board meetings, represents the City in legal actions and proceedings, and retains, supervises and monitors outside legal counsel. The City Attorney also approves all bonds and contracts made by the City, prepares ordinances and resolutions as required by the Council and prosecutes violations of the City's Municipal Codes and Ordinances.

4. The Brown Act

This is a mere glimpse of the Brown Act. A more detailed Brown Act and Political Reform Act Booklet is available to the advisory board through the City Attorney's office.

a. The Brown Act.

The general purpose of the Brown Act is to aid in the conduct of the people's business. The people, in delegating authority, do not give their public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not for the people to know. Therefore, it is the intent of this Act that the actions and deliberations of all local agencies be taken openly, including deliberations and collective discussion involving the examination, weighing and reflection on the reasons for or against a choice. It also includes the exchange of facts preliminary to the ultimate decision.

Generally all meetings of City boards, commissions, committees and groups are to be open and public and all persons are to be permitted to attend any meeting. Under certain strict circumstances, closed session meetings are permitted.

Brown Act Compliance is absolutely required. We encourage you to carefully review the Brown Act Booklet which is available through the City Attorney's Office which describes in detail the Brown Act.

5. Political Reform Act (Conflicts of Interest)

A. Background

The Political Reform Act (Government Code sections 81000, et seq.) was approved by the voters of the State of California and is intended to prevent conflicts of interest by requiring public officials to disclose certain personal financial interests which could foreseeably cause conflicts. In addition, a public official may be required to disqualify himself/herself from making, participating in, or attempting to influence any government decision which will affect any of his/her financial interests, not just those that are required to be disclosed. The City's Brown Act and Political Reform Act Booklet explains in more detail what a conflict of interest is, and when the law requires disqualification. In addition, the Fair Political Practices Commission is available for advice.

Under the Political Reform Act, no public official may make, participate in making, or in anyway attempt to use his or her official position to influence a governmental decision if he or she knows or has reason to know that he or she has a financial interest. (Government Code Section 87100). A public official has a financial interest in a decision if it is reasonably foreseeable that the decision will have a material financial effect on one or more of his or her economic interests. (Government Code Section 87103; 2 Cal. Code of Regs. Section 18700 (a)).

The term "financial interest" denotes a conclusion that a public official has a financial interest in a decision if it is concluded that it is reasonably foreseeable that the decision will have a material financial effect on his or her economic stake greater than that of other citizens. The term "economic interest" is a label applied to the particular types of stakes recognized by the Act as potential sources of a conflict of interest. There are specific types of economic interest recognized by the Act, as such, we direct you to carefully review the Brown Act and Political Reform Act Booklet which is available from the City Attorney's Office and/or visit the Fair Political Practices Commission Web page for more detailed information.

B. City Policy Regarding Conflicts of Interests

Because the City of Morro Bay is a small, closely knit community it is imperative that the citizens have trust and confidence in City government. Therefore, the City has adopted this public policy to prevent any possibility of conflict that may arise.

Generally stated, any elected or appointed official has a conflict of interest if he or she has a financial interest in a project before the City and/or when compensation is received from anyone seeking approvals from the City. There are some exceptions but, generally, elected or appointed officials are prohibited from voting on projects where a conflict exists. A conflict of interest also occurs when officials live within a certain distance from a project (usually 500 feet). Even if a legal conflict does not exist, it may be inappropriate to participate in a decision for personal reasons to avoid even the appearance of a conflict of interest. As an example, there could be a conflict if your good friend has a matter before your board, and you do not feel that it would be appropriate for you to voice an opinion in your "City" capacity. While the latter case is not defined by the Fair Political Practices Commission as a conflict, it could be perceived as a conflict, and then stepping down is appropriate.

It is the policy of the City that, in addition to strictly adhering to the FPPC rules, all elected and appointed officials conduct themselves in a manner that does not raise a reasonable perception or belief that there is a conflict of interest or an abuse of your position. All board and commission members should avoid the appearance of conflict at all costs.

If you step down from the dais and refrain from voting on an issue, you are not precluded from speaking as an individual. Your presentation, however, must be made from the floor, at the microphone with the rest of the public. You should state for the record that you are speaking as an individual. Many times in the past, Councilmembers and Board and Commissioners have stepped down from their official position at the dais when projects are presented in which there may be the potential for conflict of interest. This provides the opportunity to present your views as an individual on any matter before any City body.

6. ADVISORY BOARD BY-LAWS
